DANCE RULES & REGULATIONS

In these rules and regulations:

“Association” means The Kiwanis Festival Association of Greater Toronto.

“Festival Office” means The Kiwanis Festival Office.

“Amateur” means any person who, up to the date of closing of entries for the forthcoming Festival, has not received remuneration forming the major portion of his/her livelihood from the profession or practice of dance.

“Professional” means any person who, up to the date of closing of entries for the forthcoming Festival, has received remuneration forming the major portion of his/her livelihood from the profession or practice of dance.

The Association will not be responsible for personal injury or the loss of or damage to any personal property.

MANAGEMENT

1. The competitions will be under the management of the Association. All matters not dealt with in these rules will be referred to the Association whose decisions on such matters will be final and binding upon all concerned. Complaints or protests will not be considered unless made in writing to the Festival Office. Under no circumstances are such protests to be made to the adjudicator.

ELIGIBILITY

2. All competitions, unless otherwise stated, will be open to amateurs only, as defined above.
3. All competitions, unless otherwise stated in these rules and regulations and the category definitions, will be open to any competitor without regard to residence or domicile.

4. The Festival is divided into two categories. All entrants must indicate their affiliation on the entry form. The two classifications are:

a. Community Groups & Schools

Schools and Community Centres
– students attend between 1 and 3 classes a week (this section includes Fine Arts Schools.)

b. Studios

i. Students participate in four (4) or fewer hours of classes per week. (Recreational competitive)

ii. Students participate in five (5) or more hours of classes per week. (Competitive).

Community participants may, if they wish, participate in the Studio classes. Studio competitors may not, however, apply for Community classes.

- The entry form must be signed by the competitor or a person authorized to sign on the competitor's behalf and forwarded to the Kiwanis Festival Office accompanied by the appropriate entry fee.
 - Earlybird Entries must be received at the Festival Office no later than January 6, 2023. You may apply a 7% discount for registrations received no later than the date above.
 - Regular Entries must be received at the Festival Office no later than February 6, 2023.
- Entry fees cannot be refunded except under circumstances where the entry is rejected by the Association. Competitors desiring to withdraw their entry must do so in writing to the Festival Office as early as possible.

10. AGE GUIDELINES: Competitors must be no older than the prescribed age on December 31, 2022. Contestants may enter their own age category or any age level above, duets and trios included. A competitor may NOT enter an age category which is lower than his/her own age.

Duets, Trios and Small Group entries should be averaged. Add the ages of all competitors and divide by the number in the group. (Where the average age is not a whole number - use the whole number i.e. 10.4 = 10, 10.8 = 10.)

11. Competitors are grouped into age categories as follows:

Minis	Ages 5-8
Junior	Ages 9-11
Intermediate	Ages 12-14
Senior	Ages 15+

12. All entries must be properly completed with the names, ages and dates of birth of the competitors. Entries without the foregoing information will not be accepted.

GROUP GUIDELINES

13. There are three (3) group categories:

Small Groups (4-9 members)
Large Groups (10-16 members)
Line (17 members or more)

All Group entries must be identified in the appropriate space, by the name of the selection to be danced.

An individual competitor cannot compete in more than one group in each class.

14. Please indicate on the entry form if the competitor(s) are of novice standing (have never competed in any dance competition prior to December 31, 2022). A student who has competed in groups but has never danced a solo, duet or trio is still a novice competitor for solos, duets and trios. Once a dancer has done a solo in any discipline, they are no longer considered a novice. Duets must be 100% novice. Trios or groups must be at least 75% novice (2 out of 3 in trio).

Competitors are urged to exercise care in entering the category information on the entry form since transfers to other classes are not possible following the closing date for entries.

15. Please notify the Festival Office of any change of address following submission of entry form(s).
16. The Association reserves the right to reject any entry for any reason.

PROGRAMME PROCEDURE

17. Following the closing date for entries, the Association will decide the schedule of the classes and reserves the right to alter such schedule if necessary.
18. The Association may, at its sole discretion, combine classes if it considers the number of entries in any one class to be insufficient. In addition, the Association reserves the right to subdivide any class into two or more competitions under circumstances where the number or character of the entries would justify such a subdivision.
19. The Association reserves the right to substitute or appoint additional adjudicators.
20. No competitor may contact the adjudicator(s). This may result in disqualification. No teacher or member of the public may contact the adjudicator(s). Necessary questions from a competitor must be directed to a member of the competition staff.
21. The marks awarded by the adjudicators are final.
22. The same routine or music cannot be used in more than one class by the same competitor.
23. Music should be uploaded into the registration no later than March 9, 2023. Please ensure that you bring a back-up copy of your music, preferably on a USB key. The playing of each piece will be supervised by the house technician.
24. Only children ages 8 and under will be allowed to be assisted on to the stage by a teacher, parent or assistant. Otherwise only Festival representatives are allowed backstage. Teachers may not demonstrate or cue students of any age from on or off stage.
25. No substitutes will be allowed in solo classes. In the event of illness, one substitute will be allowed in duets or trios on notice to the Festival Office. The person substituting must be eligible with respect to age and other requirements to perform in that class.
26. A competitor requiring a "second start" due to a lapse of memory or illness will receive an adjudication but will not receive a mark, except in novice categories.
27. No strobe or theatrical lighting will be permitted. Props that are simple to set up and remove are allowed. Breakable props, or props that could pose danger (such as knives, swords, fire) are PROHIBITED. Also, no liquid substances, glitter or confetti are permitted in any routine.

CATEGORY DEFINITIONS FOR ALL ENTRIES

28. The maximum time allowed for all solo performances are:

Solos	3 minutes
Duets/Trios	3 minutes
Groups	3.5 minutes
Production	10 minutes (minimum of 12 dancers)

There is no time minimum. A penalty of 1 mark for every 10 seconds over the allotted time will be imposed.

29. All competitors should be in costume, warmed-up and prepared to dance one half hour prior to the stated class time. The Association reserves the right to disqualify any competitor or group who is not ready to perform when called.
30. It is essential that each teacher and student check in upon arrival.
31. Proper conduct in the auditorium and backstage must be followed at all times. Excessive noise or disruptions will not be tolerated and may result in the disqualification of entrants and/or ejection of audience members from the auditorium. Front of House and Backstage Managers will enforce this rule strictly.
32. During the competition, photography of any kind (including video cameras and cell phones) is strictly prohibited.

AWARDS

33. Marks and medals will be presented during the competitions and in accordance with the following classifications and marks:
- Diamond minimum of 94
 - Ruby minimum of 90
 - Emerald minimum of 85
 - Sapphire minimum of 80

All competitors reaching these marks will be awarded the appropriate medals. If there is a first place tie it will be at the adjudicators' discretion as to who will be the trophy winner.

34. Adjudicators' marks will be announced during each adjudication.

SPECIAL AWARDS

35. Special Awards will include the following for each of schools and studios:
- Adjudicator Choice Awards
 - Choreography Awards
 - Best in Discipline Awards
